PHARMAFLAIR

ISSUE NO. 5

APRIL 2026

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warm greetings to the readers, contributors, and the entire academic fraternity on the release of the 5th edition of PHARMAFLAIR.

The consistent publication of this newsletter is a testament to the vibrant intellectual culture nurtured at CCP, Landran. Each edition marks a meaningful step forward in our journey to promote reading, research, and the thoughtful exchange of ideas. Reaching the fifth edition reflects not only continuity but also the growing enthusiasm and engagement of our students and faculty with the library as a center of knowledge and innovation. In today's rapidly evolving academic landscape, where information is both abundant and dynamic, the role of the library has expanded beyond traditional boundaries. It now serves as a hub that integrates print and digital resources, encourages inquiry-based learning, and supports interdisciplinary exploration. PHARMAFLAIR captures this evolution by highlighting initiatives, resources, achievements, and creative expressions from across our institution.

I sincerely appreciate the dedicated efforts of the library team in curating this edition, as well as the contributors whose insights and creativity enrich its content. I encourage our students and faculty to continue making the most of the library's resources and to actively contribute to future editions of PHARMAFLAIR. Let this newsletter continue to serve as a platform that inspires learning, innovation, and the sharing of knowledge.

Wishing this 5th edition great success and all readers an engaging and enlightening experience.
